

Conducting a Voter Registration Drive in Alaska

Voter Registration Deadline

Applications must be received 30 days before Election Day.

Getting Started

Training Requirement: Alaska does not require training for registration drives. However, Contact the regional office of the Division of Elections about becoming a registrar.

Notification and Registration Requirements: Alaska does not have notification requirements for registration drives but requests you notify the regional elections office if you plan to conduct a drive.

Compensation Restrictions: Do not pay registration drive participants based on how many registrations they collect.

Registration officials or registrars: individuals who wish to collect and deliver completed forms that are immediately validated must become a registration official or registrar, are subject to training requirements and must take an oath. This it is not required to conduct a voter registration drive. Contact the local supervisor about your intentions.

Handling Applications

Incomplete Applications: Applicants should complete their own registration application unless they need assistance due to a disability or are unable to read or write English. Registrars may not make any changes to voter registration forms while the applicant is not present.

Photocopying Completed Applications: Registration officials may not photocopy completed applications or collect the voter's age or date of birth, full or partial social security number, driver's license / ID number, place of birth, signature, phone number, or email addresses provided as part of a registration form.

Submitting Completed Applications: Registrars must submit completed applications to a regional elections office within 5 days of the date the application is completed.

Obtaining Applications

State Form: The state mail-in voter registration application can be filled out and downloaded at State Division of Elections website at www.elections.alaska.gov.

Forms are available at Division of Election offices, clerks' offices, the Division of Motor Vehicles, public assistance agencies, state agencies serving people with disabilities, some public libraries, tribal government offices, legislative information offices, and voter registrars.

Federal Form: The federal mail-in voter registration application may be used in registration drives.

Photocopying Blank Forms: You can photocopy blank forms.

Fair Elections Center and Campus Vote Project intend the information contained herein is used only as a general guide. This document should not be used as a substitute for consultation with a licensed Alaska legal professional.

Last updated June 2018

For more information, visit www.fairelectionscenter.org