

Conducting a Voter Registration Drive in Pennsylvania

Voter Registration Deadline

Applications must be received or postmarked by 30 days before Election Day.

Getting Started

Training Requirement: Pennsylvania does not require training for registration drives.

Notification and Registration Requirements: Pennsylvania does not have notification requirements for registration drives.

Compensation Restrictions: Do not pay registration drive participants based on how many registrations they collect.

Obtaining Applications

State Form: Voter registration applications may be obtained from the Secretary of State's website. Pennsylvania application forms are available for free through the Department of State.

Federal Form: Voter registration organizations are asked to use Pennsylvania specific application forms, but may also use the federal voter registration application.

Photocopying Blank Forms: Blank applications may be photocopied and used in voter registration drives, but printed forms must meet paper quality standards set by the Secretary of State's office.

Handling Applications

Incomplete Applications: Do not fill in any missing information on a registration form unless you have permission from the applicant. Any person who assists in the completion of a registration application must sign the application and indicate the person's address.

Photocopying Completed Applications: Pennsylvania currently does not have any laws regarding photocopying completed applications.

Submitting Completed Applications: Completed voter registration applications must be submitted to the voter's County Voter Registration Office.

The Secretary of State recommends that voter registration organizations submit completed applications as they are received.

Fair Elections Center and Campus Vote Project intend the information contained herein is used only as a general guide. This document should not be used as a substitute for consultation with a licensed Pennsylvania legal professional.

Last updated June 2018

For more information, visit www.fairelectionscenter.org